

George Emanuele, CFA, CFP, CMT

Senior Director
BNY Mellon Wealth Management

George Emanuele is a senior director and portfolio manager for BNY Mellon Wealth Management in the Central Pennsylvania region. He works with clients and families to develop, implement, and manage their investments to fulfill their goals within the context of their comprehensive wealth management plan.

George has over 22 years of investment experience in the wealth management field. Previously, George worked at PNC Wealth Management as a senior investment advisor working in a similar capacity.

George received his bachelor's degree from the Pennsylvania State University and his master's in business administration from the University of Pittsburgh. He received the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation in 2006 from the CFA Institute and he received his Chartered Market Technician in 2016. George is a board member, and past president, of the CFA Institute where he is responsible for multiple initiatives.

Education

Bachelor's Degree, Pennsylvania State University
Masters Business Administration, University of Pittsburgh

Memberships

Board Member, Current Vice President of CFA Institute